

CACI Acquisition Management Solutions and Services

Automating Contract Management Compliance

CACI is the leading provider of acquisition management solutions and services to the federal government. Agencies use our solutions to issue $200 billion in federal contract actions each year, which is one-third of all federal contracting dollars. CACI has implemented all five leading enterprise federal contract management solutions. Our federal acquisition domain capabilities have been built through hundreds of successful contract management software implementations over more than 20 years, and include engagements supporting federal contracting offices with acquisition assistance services. CACI's solutions deliver FAR/DFARS compliance, process automation, agency-wide collaboration, financial data integrity, integration with government-wide systems, and agency-specific policy enforcement.
